Dear General Cabell:

Mr. Ford's letter of December 22, 1961 informed you of the reallocation of the functions of servicing other agency communications needs from our Communications Liaison Officer to the operating divisions.

As a means of expediting the handling of requests for extra copies of despatches, airgrams and instructions, calls for such service should be directed to the Division of Reproduction and Distribution Services on Code 182, Extension 4056. Other matters pertaining to these communications should be referred to the Division of Records Management on Code 182, Extension 2246.

Inquiries relating to telegraphic communications shall continue to be directed to the Diplomatic Telegraphic Branch on Code 182, Extension 5478.

Sincerely yours,

W. O. Trone
Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary for Operations.

General Charles P. Cabell,
Deputy Director,
Central Intelligence Agency,
Langley, Virginia.
